

Official Breakout EDU Game Template

Creating a good game usually takes thoughtful and careful planning. While each game designer may approach the process differently, we have created this template and brainstorming document to help you start the process of designing games that can work with the Breakout EDU platform.

Game Name: What is the name or title of the game you are designing?

Game Designer: Your Name

Content Areas: What is subject or content areas of your game? Ex. Math, Fractions

Recommended Ages: Who is your target audience?

Ideal Group Size: Is this game intended for small groups? A whole class? Larger audiences?

Suggested Time: How long do you anticipate players needing to complete this game?

Story: There's a locked box in the room. Why are people trying to open it? Think of the story as a script that the facilitator could read to introduce the game to the group about to play. It can be a few sentences to a few short paragraphs. Many games have a story and a logical progression. If not a structured story, having a defined theme can help with the creation process. Take a look at some of the games in the Breakout EDU game library for inspiration. You can use different curriculum topics, favorite movies, or books for inspiration as well.

Lock Combinations: What codes will open the locks on the box?

3-Digit Lock - 3 Numbers
4-Digit Lock - 4 Numbers
ABC Lock - 4-5 Letters for the ABC Multilock
Directional Lock - 5 Directions for the Directional Multilock
Key Lock - Where is the key hidden?

Setup Instructions: List the steps that a facilitator needs to do in order to set up the game. You can test your instructions by having someone else try to set up your game. You'll quickly figure out how they need to be improved.

Reflection Questions: When the game concludes, we encourage the use of Reflection Cards to have a debrief with the participants. Please include 5 questions related to your game that could be asked in a discussion.

Tags or Keywords: You may have selected a subject area above, but there is likely a subset of content that your game covers. For example, if you selected “Math” a keyword could be Algebra or Derivatives or anything else more specific. Please separate each word with a comma. (Example - “algebra, derivatives, etc.”)

Additional Requirements: All Breakout EDU games should be able to be played with the standard Breakout EDU kit. However, some games require unique common items. If your game relies on any additional items, please list them below and explain their use.

Does your game align to any standards? Local country, CCSS or NGSS for US preferred
(optional)

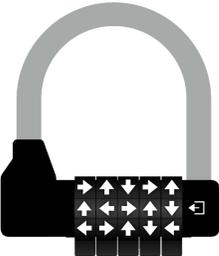

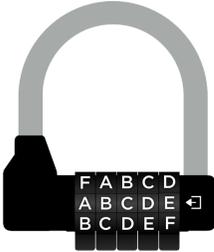

Digital Files: Link to any printouts or papers that are required (this is ideally a google drive folder that is shared with anyone with the link) If your game includes Google Forms, please include an editable copy of the form so that others can utilize it if the game gets published.

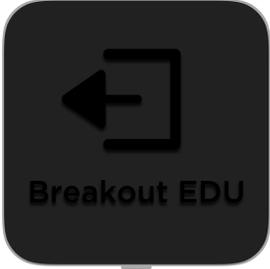

Link to YouTube Video: All games need to have a video explaining the setup and game flow. These should be less than 5 minutes. Look at the other games in the game library for example. Here are some digital images you can use in your game video.
